Historic Augusta's Benefit Auction
Perfectly Aged: Antiques and Wine
Thursday, September 9, 2010

Historic Augusta's benefit auction Perfectly Aged: Antiques and Wine will be held at Saint Paul's River Room, located at 605 Reynolds Street in Augusta, Georgia, on Thursday, September 9, 2010.

The evening will begin at 6:30 pm with a wine tasting, cocktails, hors d'oeuvres provided by Augusta's top restaurants and caterers, and a silent auction. A raffle will be held for jewelry and stationery.

At 8 pm, a live auction will begin which includes fine antiques, art, premium wines and innovative entertainment packages. The volunteer auctioneer will be Bryan Simkins of Augusta.

Admission is $100 per person. For those who are age 35 and under, admission is $50 per person. Proceeds benefit the projects and programs of Historic Augusta, Inc., a non-profit organization whose mission is to preserve historically or architecturally significant sites and structures in Augusta and Richmond County, Georgia.

Perfectly Aged: Antiques and Wine is sponsored in part by The Augusta Chronicle, WJBF News Channel 6, Augusta ENT and University Health Care System.
