Historic Augusta's Downtown Loft Tour, May 3 and 4, 2013

Now in its ninth year, Historic Augusta's Downtown Loft Tour is a fun way for people to experience what makes living and working in downtown Augusta, Georgia so special. Held during National Preservation Month on First Friday, May 3 and Saturday, May 4, the tour features the architecture and interiors of renovated spaces as well as those which are in progress. Tickets are valid for both tour days, from 6-9 pm on Friday and from noon-5 pm on Saturday.

The purpose of the tour is to encourage interest in the preservation and use of historic buildings in the Augusta Downtown Historic District by providing the public with an intimate look at their interiors. The tour includes eleven buildings of various sizes and styles, each with distinctive architectural features and design. Featured on this year's tour will be:
