Perfectly Aged: Historic Augusta's Benefit Auction Thursday, September 20, 2012

Perfectly Aged: Historic Augusta's Benefit Auction will be held at Saint Paul's River Room, located at 605 Reynolds Street in Augusta, Georgia, on Thursday, September 20, 2012.

The evening will begin at 6:30 pm with a wine tasting, cocktails, and hors d'oeuvres provided by Augusta's top restaurants and caterers. A silent auction will feature a variety of quality items, including unique experiences, fine wines and quality antiques. The silent auction will close at 9 pm.

A raffle will be held for: a 4 night stay in a Santa Fe, New Mexico 3 bedroom, 3 bath luxury condominium in a private country club setting minutes from downtown, donated by Mr. David Smoak and Ms. Charity Townsend; pair of VIP/all event Westobou Festival tickets, donated by the Westobou Festival; and a rose gold bangle bracelet and matching hoop earrings set with round crystals, donated by The Estate Jewelry Center Joel Conte.

Admission is $100 per person. For those who are age 35 and under, admission is $50 per person. Proceeds benefit the projects and programs of Historic Augusta, Inc., a non-profit organization with a mission to preserve historically or architecturally significant sites and structures in Augusta and Richmond County, Georgia.

Perfectly Aged: Historic Augusta's Benefit Auction is sponsored in part by The Augusta Chronicle, WJBF News Channel 6, Comcast Business Class, Augusta ENT, Georgia Health Sciences University, and University Health Care System.

For more information, to purchase a ticket, or to place a silent auction bid in advance, call Historic Augusta at (706) 724-0436. Silent auction bids may also be placed at the event. Preview auction items as they arrive at www.historicaugusta.org.
