Historic Augusta's Benefit Auction
Perfectly Aged: Antiques and Wine
Thursday, September 22, 2011

Historic Augusta's benefit auction Perfectly Aged: Antiques and Wine will be held at Saint Paul's River Room, located at 605 Reynolds Street in Augusta, Georgia, on Thursday, September 22, 2011.

The evening will begin at 6:30 pm with wine tasting, cocktails, hors d'oeuvres provided by Augusta's top restaurants and caterers, and a silent auction. A raffle will be held for: a David Yurman sterling silver 11 mm pavé diamond Infinity necklace on an 18 inch box chain, donated by Windsor Jewelers; an exquisite autumnal floral composition by Greg Boulus in a hand blown Simon Pearce vase, donated by Charleston Street Fine Flowers and Events; and a $500 gift certificate for fine stationery and gifts, donated by The White Crane.

At 8 pm, a live auction will begin which includes fine antiques, art, premium wines and entertainment packages. The volunteer auctioneer will be Bryan Simkins of Augusta.

Admission is $100 per person. For those who are age 35 and under, admission is $50 per person. Proceeds benefit the projects and programs of Historic Augusta, Inc., a non-profit organization whose mission is to preserve historically or architecturally significant sites and structures in Augusta and Richmond County, Georgia.

Perfectly Aged: Antiques and Wine is sponsored in part by The Augusta Chronicle, WJBF News Channel 6, WBBQ, Georgia Health Sciences University, Security Federal Bank, and University Health Care System.

For more information or to purchase a ticket, call Historic Augusta at (706) 724-0436. Preview auction items as they arrive at www.historicaugusta.org.
