Historic Augusta's Benefit Auction Perfectly Aged Thursday, September 17, 2015

Historic Augusta's Benefit Auction Perfectly Aged will be held at Saint Paul's River Room, located at 605 Reynolds Street in Augusta, Georgia, on Thursday, September 17, 2015 at 6:30 pm.

The evening will begin with cocktails and a wine tasting coordinated by Toast Wine and Beverage. A silent auction will feature a variety of items including unique experiences and packages, fine wines, and precious antiques. Epicurean delights will be provided by: Cadwalladers, Cucina 503, Fatz Café, French Market Grille, French Market Grille West, Go West Event Planning & Catering, La Bonbonnière, The Pinnacle Club, PDQ, The Silver Palm Catering, Southbound Smokehouse, Tastefully Yours, Two Moms Cookies, Wife Saver and many others.

A raffle will be held for: a one-year family fitness membership, donated by Evans Fitness Club; aesthetician services, donated by Augusta Laser & Skin Center; a Swarovski crystal bracelet and earring set donated by Crown Jewelers; and a framed fine-art print, donated by Outside the Box Fine Art.

Admission is $100 per person. For those aged 35 and under, admission is $50 per person. Proceeds benefit the projects and programs of Historic Augusta, Inc., a non-profit organization with a mission to preserve historically or architecturally significant sites and structures in Augusta and Richmond County, Georgia.

Historic Augusta's Benefit Auction Perfectly Aged is sponsored in part by The Augusta Chronicle, Augusta ENT, Georgia Regents University, Historic Augusta Endowment Trust, University Health Care Systems, and WJBF News Channel 6.
