CELEBRATE PRESIDENTS' DAY AND TAKE A TOUR OF THE BOYHOOD HOME OF PRESIDENT WOODROW WILSON ON MONDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2020

The Boyhood Home of President Woodrow Wilson will be open for tours on Monday, February 17, 2020 in honor of Presidents' Day. Special Buy-One, Get-One Free tours will be given every 30 minutes on the hour and half hour between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. The first tour will begin at 10 a.m. and the last tour will begin at 4:00 p.m. Tickets are $5 for adults, $4 for seniors, $3 for students K-12.

Visitors to the museum will have the opportunity to tour the house where Wilson lived during his formative years in Augusta. Now recognized as a National Historic Landmark, the home is interpreted in the 1860's decade when Wilson and his family occupied the home. Patrons will also have the opportunity to explore an exhibit about the life of Woodrow Wilson and learn more about his accomplishments after Augusta, including the lasting impact of his childhood experiences during the Civil War and Reconstruction.

Children will enjoy educational activities including trivia, coloring pages, and writing activities. All guests will have a chance to view and enjoy "A Boy Never Gets Over His Boyhood," an award-winning video about Wilson's life after Augusta.

The Boyhood Home of President Woodrow Wilson is located at 419 Seventh Street in downtown Augusta. Tours begin in the visitors center next door at 415 7th Street. In addition to Presidents' Day, The Boyhood Home of President Woodrow Wilson is open for tours during its regularly scheduled times Thursdays through Saturdays, on the hour from 10 a.m. through 4 p.m. Group tours are offered by appointment.
