Welcome to this special issue of The Preservationist, an e-publication of Historic Augusta, Inc! This newsletter contains information about the proposed Woodlawn Historic District.

Public Information Meeting to be held July 27th

Staff members from Historic Augusta, Inc. and the Historic Preservation Division of the Georgia Department of Natural Resources will hold a public information meeting concerning the proposed Woodlawn Historic District and the National Register of Historic Places. The meeting will take place on Wednesday July 27th, 2016, at 5:30PM at Historic Augusta, Inc.'s offices, 415 7th Street, Augusta, Georgia, 30901.

All residents of the Woodlawn neighborhood are invited to attend! The proposed boundaries for the new historic district roughly include Walton Way, Hickman Road, Wrightsboro Road, and Druid Park Avenue.

The National Register of Historic Places is the federal government's official list of historic buildings, structures, sites, objects, and districts worthy of preservation. The Historic Preservation Division nominates eligible properties in Georgia to the National Register so property owners can receive preservation benefits and incentives. For more information about the National Register and other preservation programs, contact the Historic Preservation Division at 770-389-7844 or visit their web site at www.georgiashpo.org

The proposed nomination and the public information meeting is sponsored by Historic Augusta, Inc. Please call
